

HONORING GOD | 2020

Will you honor God with your vote this election day?

As a Christian, 5 reasons why I should care about government and about voting.

1 Government was Instituted by God

Romans 13 and 1 Peter 2 show us that government was instituted by God, created with a special purpose and responsibility: to punish evil and reward those who do good. Government is God's means of establishing justice, and justice is so important to God since His Son was killed on the Cross to satisfy its requirements.

2 Government Officials are Ministers of God

Romans 13 calls government officials ministers of God, meaning they are, in effect, servants of the Lord. Just as pastors are ministers of the Church, elected officials are ministers of God in government, and they have a job to do for Him. This should change the way we view our elected officials. This is why the Bible calls us to pray, submit, and honor those in authority. (1 Tim 2, Rom 13, 1 Pet 2)

3 Government Cannot Properly Do Its Job Without the Church

How do governments of the world determine good and evil? Left on their own, governments often get it wrong. Government needs informed Christian citizens to provide a standard for what the Lord has called good and what He calls evil.

4 Law Matters

The law has never been able to save, and we are free from the penalty of sin. But the moral law comes from the character and nature of God, standing as a teacher and shaper of culture. Godly leaders pass laws that help guide society to see what is right and to protect people by making it more difficult to sin.

5 You Get to Choose

As Americans, we are a government by, of, and for the people, so we get the privilege of choosing those who serve in government. As Christians we also know that God expects us to be good stewards of this opportunity and to select the best, most qualified people to serve as ministers in government. Our right to vote is a gift God has given us to use to honor Him. (Matt 25: 14-30)
